System Leadership

End of programme summary 2023-2025

Lancashire
Healthier Places

7 Districts engaged in discussions to progress the development and adoption of a district declaration; Burnley, Chorley, Fylde, Pendle, Ribble Valley, South Ribble, West Lancs

3 Districts supported co-creation of a draft district declaration

Hosted an Online Briefing for Elected Members, chaired by County Council Lead Member for Health and Well-being – attended by 18 EM's

2 Healthy Weight Workshops in Fylde and Pendle to consider how the district can play a leadership role in building a healthier weight environment and adoption of a district declaration (workshop planned for West Lancs)

12 District Health & Well-being Infographics created in collaboration with Active Lancashire & Together an Active Future – designed for Elected Members and providing district level data on a range of demographics and health indicators relevant to the local population.

Hosted a System Leadership Workshop An opportunity to bring together officers and elected members to discuss healthy weight at district level. Nine districts engaged including officers representing planning, housing, community services climate and HWB portfolios.

7 Assets and Opportunities Infographics presenting information for local communities to engage in health and well-being activities across districts.

3 briefings and 1 case study for Officers and Elected Members in facilitating engagement and support for taking a whole system approach to healthy Weight:

- Creating Healthy Weight Environments in Lancashire
- The case for a district council declaration on healthy weight
- System Leadership
- Hot food takeaway advice note case study produced in collaboration with the Wider Determinants Team
- Hosted a Healthy Weight Environments online learning session for Healthy Weight Collaborations across districts
- Developed and launched the EM e-learning module – Creating Healthy Weight Environments across Lancashire